for Reissue of Patent 5,792,055, Issued August 11, 1998

REQUEST TO LOCATE AND URGENTLY PROCESS PTO-LOST REISSUE APPLICATION FILED AUGUST 10, 2000

Hon. Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington D.C. 20231

Sir:

On August 10, 2000, an application for Reissue of Patent 5,792,055 was filed by Express Mail in the PTO. The same was a "Missing Parts" application, lacking the inventor's signature and filing fee. Applicant's attorney received a PTO-dated postcard confirming the filing date of August 10, 2000. A copy of the postcard is attached, along with a copy of Express Mail Receipt EL636049086US showing the like Express mailing date of August 10, 2000.

No filing receipt, Missing Parts letter, or any other communication whatever has been received from the PTO in this case. It would appear that the PTO has misplaced the entire application.

Applicant's associate attorney has examined the PTO file of the parent original patent 5,792,055 in the chance that the new application may have been misplaced therein, but the patent file shows no indication of the reissue application.

Further, applicant's attorney has spent substantial time with Mr. Sean Hill of OIPE in an effort to locate this case in the PTO database. Diverse searches by inventor, parent patent number, docket number, and Express Mail number have all failed to show a PTO computer record of this case.

The PTO is accordingly requested to locate the lost application and immediately process the same under the filing date of August 10, 2000 as a usual reissue application for examination. Should the PTO be unable to locate the lost papers, applicant's attorney provides herewith a complete copy of the application as filed August 10, 2000, which the PTO may use in creating the application file for examination.

The attached copy of the Transmittal Letter identifies the copies of the papers submitted herewith which comprise the application.

The undersigned associate attorney certifies that the attached papers are true copies of the original reissue application as filed on August 10, 2000.

The PTO is invited to contact the undersigned local associate or the principal attorney should such be of assistance to the PTO.

Prompt action is respectfully requested in view of the passage of time since filing the application.

Respectfully submitted,

GRAEME C. MCKINNON
